

Wednesday 12th November

INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY ARTS (ICA)

Dreamer's Dream + Q&A

● 18.30 Cinema 2

Dir: Chester Yang // UK Premier // 57min // 2006 // UK

A romantic comedy which follows the journey of twenty-something, Ray (Alexis Rodney), who settled with his partner Kylie (Sophie Marriotte) and their daughter, fancies himself as a performance poet. Caught up in the lofty world of his ideals, he meets two devious men who trick him and set about the unraveling of his comfortable life. Can Ray get his world back together and find a voice?

● Screening will be followed by a Q&A with the director.

+

● Tony Blackwood: In Stereo

Dir: Keston Neunie // 5min // 2007 // UK

An animated short in which the comical Tony Blackwood narrates the tribulations of being a young black male.

U People

● 20.30 Cinema 2

Dir: Hanifah Walidah and Olive Demetrius // UK Premier // 76min // 2008 // US

An accidental documentary where an entire cast and crew of 30 gay, straight women and trans folks of color were caught on camera behind the scenes of a not so typical music video shoot. What the camera caught introduces a strong and very human voice into the discussion of gay and straight relations and the diversity within the minority.

Thursday 13th November

INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY ARTS (ICA)

The Dancing Forest + Q&A

● 18.30 Cinema 2

Dir: Brice Laine // 76min // 2008 // Togo // UK

Set in the rural plains of Togo, The Dancing Forest is an eloquent and inspirational story of the people of Baga who refuse to be victims of a global system of dependence and inequality. With fantastic cinematography and a rare glimpse into traditional agricultural practices, The Dancing Forest offers a story of survival and hope. French with English subtitles.

● Screening will be followed by a Q&A with the director.

